OR ALTERNATIVELY
PETITION TO REVIVE UNINTENTIONAL ABANDONMENT

In a Notice of Abandonment dated 26 August 2004, the Office confirms that Applicant's Reply (copy attached) was received 17 June 2004, but alleges that it was deemed improper for lack of fees for extension of time, and that the undersigned was unavailable for further correspondence. As background, it should be appreciated that the undersigned attorney filed a Change of Correspondence after submission of the Reply, and that the USPTO has since adapted that address to that which is reflected in the Notice of Abandonment; the undersigned attorney confirms that address for future correspondence. A telephone conversation was had this morning with Examiner Weeks in this regard, and it was agreed that the current action was required since the Notice of Abandonment had been issued.

With respect to the grounds cited in support of the issuance of the Notice of Abandonment, the Office's attention is respectfully directed to the last page of the Reply, where, in the top two paragraphs, Applicant states the following:

The undersigned representative requests any extension of time that may be deemed necessary to further the prosecution of this application.

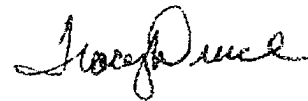

The undersigned representative authorizes the Commissioner to charge any additional fees under 37 C.F.R. 1.16 or 1.17 that may be required, or credit any overpayment, to Deposit Account No. 08-3038, referencing Order No. 03485.0004.NPUS00.

It is respectfully asserted that this constitutes a proper Extension of Time according to MPEP § 710.02(e) in that the request was timely made (in this case, explicitly), and authorization was provided for deposit account payment. Therefore, it is respectfully asserted that the Notice of Abandonment was incorrectly issued, and should be withdrawn.

Alternatively, out of an abundance of caution, a Petition to Revive for Unintentional Abandonment is attached in the event that the USPTO determines that a withdrawal of the abandonment is not proper, and that such a petition is required.

Respectfully Submitted,
